

SINO-GERMAN CENTER

at Frankfurt School

The Frankfurt School of Finance & Management is one of Europe's leading business schools. We invite applications for a position as

Student Assistant (up to 40 hours / month)

The position will support the finishing of a book about China's Economy, a project that is external funded and conducted at the Sino-German Center of Finance & Economics (SGC) at Frankfurt School.

Your tasks include literature and data research, proof reading, writing of small excerpts as well as the creation of charts among others.

We are looking for a candidate with a very good command of English and interest in China's business and economy; know-how of Python and Mandarin are a plus but not a must.

The starting date of the position is April 1st, 2023.

We value diversity and seek talented students, faculty, and staff from diverse backgrounds. The Frankfurt School is an equal opportunities employer.

Are you interested?

The deadline for applications is March 15, 2023.

Please submit your application, including

- Resume including complete and current address, and a brief cover letter
- Enrollment certificate (for temporary student employees)
- Residence/work permit (for non-EU citizens)

by e-mail to

Prof. Dr. Horst Löchel, Head of the SGC (h.loechel@fs.de)

For inquiries about the position, please contact Prof. Dr. Horst Löchel, Head of the SGC (h.loechel@fs.de) or Tim Jablonski (t.jablonski@fs.de), research assistant at the SGC

For non-EU citizens, the form of employment must also be in accordance with the legal and time regulations specified in the work or residence permit.

Please note that student assistants may not be in any other employment at the time of entry.
